Celebrating Volunteer Appreciation Week

Betty Kaan Family Support Center

Betty Kaan volunteers in the Family Services section. This section includes Airman's Attic and the loan closet, which provides household items for families PCSing or who need items temporarily for other reasons.

Family Services also offers a food pantry for needy military families and a video and brochure section that provides information on Air Force bases worldwide. Kaan also volunteers several hours a week at the Consignment Shop.

"I like working with people and being able to help them out," said Kaan, who's been a volunteer at the Family Support Center since August 1999. "I enjoy talking to people and getting to know them."

Kaan and her husband, 437th Support Group Commander Col. Dennis Kaan, have two sons: Michael, 18 years old, is a student at Southern Illinois University and Eric, 17, is a junior at Academic Magnet School. The Kaans have been stationed at Charleston since June 1999.

In her spare time, Kaan enjoys arts and crafts and pet grooming. Her family owns three dogs and a cat. She also enjoys shopping.

"It's fun to volunteer - I enjoy it," she said.
