

Recruit-the-Recruiter team visits Tuesday

Do you want to play a part in shaping tomorrow's Air Force? Looking for a chance to choose your next assignment? Would you like to manage your own office and be stationed near or in your home state? Could you use $375 a month Special Duty Assignment Pay?

If you're a senior airman through master sergeant, the Recruit-the-Recruiter team may have the answer to your Air Force future. A team from Randolph AFB, Texas, will host a one-hour briefing Tuesday, 10 a.m., at the base theater. Qualified applicants may be selected for a recruiting vacancy on the spot. Recruiting officials highly encourage those people who are in a mandatory retraining career field to attend this briefing.

The briefing will focus on the many benefits of being a recruiter and completing the six-week Air Force recruiting school at Lackland AFB, Texas. It also addresses many of the rumors associated with recruiting duty. Spouses are encouraged to attend so they fully understand the challenges and rewards of recruiting duty.

For more information, visit the Recruit the Recruiter website at www.rs.af.mil/RTR.htm, or call the team at DSN 487-3511, or commercial (210) 652-3511.

Healthcare Consumer Advisory Council

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations and the Air Force Inspector General cordially invite all 437th Medical Group beneficiaries to attend the 437 MDG Healthcare Consumer Advisory Council.

When: Wednesday, 2:30-3:30 p.m.
Where: Charleston Club, Bldg. 355

For more information about the advisory council, call Tech. Sgt. Steven Cook at 963-6901.

