“YEAR OF THE WARRIOR SPIRIT” TEAM SPEAKS AT NORTHWOODS MALL

CHARLESTON AIR FORCE BASE, S.C. – A warrior spirit team of Charleston AFB personnel from Operation Enduring Freedom will be speaking to the public for the first time at Northwoods Mall March 22 from 5 to 7 p.m. near the food court.

The year 2002 has been deemed “Year of the Warrior Spirit” by Air Mobility Command. To help spread the word about what Charleston AFB has been doing during the war on terrorism, teams comprised of pilots, loadmasters and support personnel have been put together to share their experiences about their participation in OEF.

These speakers have amazing stories to tell since many of them have flown missions in and out of Afghanistan, to include participating in the humanitarian airdrops and bringing in important cargo and troops to support the war.

To date, the base has flown almost 1,500 missions moving forces and equipment in support of OEF since the Sept. 11th attacks on America.

The warrior spirit team will be available for interviews and questions near the Easter Bunny located by the food court.
