

(off base) during normal duty hours. Students using tuition assistance must have their TA forms with them when registering.

Spring I Term classes begin the week of Jan. 10. For information, call the Webster University military site representative, Damond Dawson, at 744-8488.

ID card renewal: The Military Personnel Flight Customer Service needs help to prevent problems in renewing and issuing military identification cards. Anyone (active duty or military family members) with an ID card that expires anytime from December to February is being asked to have them renewed before Dec. 15.

Family members who do not have an ID card due to a marriage should also come in by Dec. 15. Sponsors must accompany their dependents to receive new ID cards. Ensure proper documentation is brought in to receive the new ID.

ID cards are issued Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., in Bldg. 503, room 112. For information, call 963-4515 or 963-4516.

CGOC meeting: The next Company Grade Officer Council meeting is Dec. 10 at 4 p.m. at the Charleston Club. The guest speaker will be Lt. Col. Gordon Hammock, 437th Airlift Wing Judge Advocate. He will discuss the ramifications of denying the Anthrax Vaccination.

The council is also looking for volunteers to help with the Holiday Cheer booth Dec. 18. For information, call 2nd Lt. Catherine Barker at 963-5202.

Job opening: The position of Director of the Retiree Activities office is open. The director oversees 80 retired military volunteers working in various base agencies. The retiree office also helps retirees seeking assistance and publishes a quarterly newspaper.

Anyone interested in the position can call retired Chief Master Sgt. Henry Scott at 963-2228.
