Yard of the Month

Photo by Senior Airman Jason Smith

Staff Sgt. Dean Irwin, 437th Operations Support Squadron loadmaster, his son, Evan, 6-years-old, daughter, Kasey, 10-months-old, and wife, Sherry, spread mulch in front of their house at 4902-A South Carolina Ave, in Hunley Park. Irwin said he and his family spend about three hours each week working in the yard. He said he was honored to receive the award, and it goes to show people can improve the appearance of their homes without putting a lot of money into it. The Irwins were previously selected as Home of the Week winners, and had to compete against three other yards to win the monthly award. The Housing Office looks at all base yards when selecting Home of the Week winners.
