CHARLESTON AFB DINING FACILITY GRAND OPENING

What:

Airmen will partake in their first lunch in at Charleston AFB's new dining facility Monday. The grand opening includes the blessing of the first meal, remarks by the 437th Airlift Wing commander, a tour of the facility, lunch and the opportunity for airmen to receive giveaways and win prizes.

Date and Time:

March 26, 10:30 a.m.

Location:

Charleston AFB.

Why:

See how the "chow halls" and "mess halls" of old have evolved into a first-rate dining facility for Charleston AFB. The new dining facility is located in a convenient campus-style environment only 100 yards from the dormitories. Airmen will enjoy shorter lines, a more convenient layout, an improved menu and updated look including patio seating and conference rooms.

Visuals:

Visuals include kitchen staff preparing and serving meals; airmen selecting, paying for and eating their meals; airmen receiving giveaways and winning prizes; a ribbon cutting; and the honor guard posting the colors. .

Contact:

Contact Capt. Tracy Velino or Master Sgt. Dan Murphy at 963-5537 to cover the grand opening and arrange interviews with the dining hall flight commander, kitchen staff, and dining airmen.
