FREE PERFORMANCE OF LETTERS FROM THE FRONT

- What: A free performance of Letters from the Front: World War II, is premiering on base tonight. The play is a three-act, two-hour walk through history based on authentic letters written by soldiers and their loved ones throughout American history.
- Date and Time: June 11 at 7:30 p.m.
- Location: Charleston AFB theater
- Why: The powerful message behind the war correspondence provides a channel for the poignant and surprisingly funny story of the home front in 1945. After the events of Sept. 11, military members take letters that deal with combat very seriously, and this performance provides a forum to share the experiences with soldiers from the past.
- Contact: News media interested in attending are asked to contact Lt. Col. Memi at (843) 412-3210 after 5 p.m.
